REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

"Treat" End of the Party to Meet in This City Tuesday.

WILL NOMINATE HANSON

Richmond Lawyer Will Oppose Edgar Allan, Candidate of "Outs,"

The situation in the Republican party ir this district is unique, and decideary interesting just now. The faction of the party of which Mr. M. M. Williams is hairman, recently held a convention and named Mr. Edgar Allan, Jr., as its condidate for Congress. The other faction didate for Congress. The other inecton of which Marshal Morgan Treat is the head, will hold a convention at Smithdeal Hall Tuesday; and will mominate its candidate. Mr. George A. Hanson, a well known member of the Richmond bar, will be the man nominated, and it is generally understood that he will accept and make an active canvass. Mr. Allan, the rival Republican candidate, is already making an active and aggressive canvass.

The regulars, or the ins or the Treat faction, as they are variously known, have elected delegates to their convention from every county and city.

Goochland regulars held their county mass convention at the courthouse of Thursday with about 100 persons present, secording to reports. Hanson in Goochland.

Ringing speeches were made by Mr. George A. Hanson, of this city, and Mr. Enright, of Goochland, Mr. Enright went after Mr. Allan, the candidate of the rival faction, in rather vigorous manner. The meeting affirmed the action of the County Convention last February in naming M. J. Enright as a action of the County Convention.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charconl is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing burnose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out ach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onlons and other odorous vegetables.
Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and cumently safe caliarite.
It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.
All druggists sell charcoal in one form of unother, but probably the best chargonic and the probably the best chargement.

the poison of catarrit.

All drugsists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antispetics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges thy charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will, scon tell in a much improved condition of, the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the henefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and howels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and threat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent propagation, yet I believe i get nore cost but twenty-five cents a box at army stores, and although in some sense a pat-ent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuarts Char-coal Locages than in any of the ordi-nary charcoal tablets."

His Body Changed by Change in Food.

A convincing bit of testimony to show what a simple change of food can sometimes do to end apparently incurable disease is told in the following article by a Chicago physician:

"The case is my own. I had been suffering for more than twenty-five years with nervous dyspepsia, insomina, occasional kidney trouble, and general disturbance of my whole system. My appetite was affected, and so I lost weight and strength, but most serious of all was the gradual failure of my memory, proving that my brain and nerves were not getting the proper food, any more than the rest of my body.

"Three times I made the journey to Carlsbad and spent a fortune consulting famous physicians and specialists in this country and Europe, but never got any permanent results." All the medicines konwn to science failed to give me even temporary, relief, in spite of the fact that I was always exceedingly careful in my diet. I was on the verge of despair, and never looked forward to being weil again.

"One day about two years ago I was my diet. I was on the verge of despair, and never looked forward to being weil again.

"One day about two years ago I was staying at a hotel in Minneapolis, accompanied by a famous European physician, Dr. Werner, of Berlin, and there we noticed a new food on the menu called Grape-Nuts. Having little desire to eat, I ordered some just to see what it looked like, and then was persuaded to try it.

"What I experienced was not short of wonderful.

"Not only did the new food tasts so good I relished it, but for the first time in many years I felt entirely free from the terrible pressure on the stomach which I had always suffered even after the lightest meal. On my return to Chicago my very first act was to order the lightest meal. On my return to Chicago my very first act was to order (Grape-Nuts sent to my home, where the whole family relish it so they use it daily without any urging, and we expect to do so as long as we live.

"As the result only of this change of food to Grape-Nuts, the awful disease which I suffered with for more-han itsenty years' disappeared entirely in about three weeks. I have regained my health, strength and yigor and about twenty-two pounds in weight. All of this ladue only to the thoroughly nourishing and completely algestible character of this food—Grape-Nuts." Proposition to Hold Biennial Sessions Laid on the

(By Associated Press.) PHILADELPHIA, PA., Oct. 1.-At a meeting of the newly appointed council of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew the following national officers were elected: President, Robert H. Gardiner, Gardiner, Maine; vice-president, Judge G. Harry Davis, Philadelphia; sceond vice-president, Edmund G. Billings, Boston; treasurer, George H. Randall, Pittsburg; general secretary, Hubert Carleton, Pitts-burg; office secretary, Edgar P. Creswell, Pittsburg.

Pittsburg.

Chicago was selected as the next meeting place. An invitation from Washington asking the Brotherhood to meet in that city in 1907 was referred to the General Council. After much discussion a proposition to hold blennial instead of the proposition to hold blennial instead of annual sessions was laid on the table. A reception to-night brought the convention to a close.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHRISTIANSBURG, VA., October 1.The regular term of the Circuit Court was to have been held to-day, but as both parties had advertised public speaking, no court was held, and the day was given over to the spelibinders. The speakers found themsolves pitted against a circus, notwithstanding this, a fairly good crowd greeted Carter Glass and Don P. Halsey in the courthouse.

Mr. Glass held his audience for more than an hour, while he discussed the issues. The position of the Democratic party on the money question and the tariff was ably reviewed. The speaker, however, declared that the paramount iseus was the personality of the presidential candidates, and his arraignment of the Republican nominee was severe, especially upon the race question. Mr.
Halsey spoke for about an hour, and in his usual shie and eloquent manner, presented the issues from his party standpoint.

point.
The Republicans held their speaking out of door, and were addressed by
